

Labor Day Revolutionary Message from Success Nkongho, 2025 Presidential Candidate of the Cameroon Liberation Movement

My fellow Cameroonians,

To the teachers who shape the minds of our children but are paid crumbs.

To the lawyers who stand for justice in a system built on corruption.

To the okada-riders who risk their lives daily on broken roads just to feed their families.

To the market women and traders who sweat under the sun while foreign-owned supermarkets swallow the economy.

To the farmers who feed the nation but are treated like beggars.

To the transporters and drivers who face harassment from uniformed men while trying to earn an honest living.

To the job seekers wasting away with degrees in their pockets but no opportunity.

To the students suffocating in a colonial education system that leaves them empty.

To the parents who have sacrificed everything to keep their families alive.

To the mothers and fathers who dream of a better Cameroon but are forced into silence.

To the youth whose fire has been crushed by unemployment, drugs, and hopelessness.

To the uniformed officers trapped in a system that uses them to oppress their own people.

To the government officials who still have a conscience but are trapped in chains of corruption.

To every common man and woman — YOU ARE THE TRUE CAMEROON.

Today, on this Labor Day, I come not just with words, but with a revolutionary call. We, the Cameroon Liberation Movement, have already taken bold underground steps to restore Cameroon's sovereignty. We are preparing the path for a nation that will NEVER AGAIN bow to France, Britain, the US, China, Russia, or any foreign power. Let it be known: when we take power, Cameroon will acquire intercontinental ballistic missiles and become a nuclear-armed nation. Why? Because no country without strength decides its own destiny. They fear us not because we are weak, but because they know if we rise, Africa rises. No more puppet strings. No more master-slave relationships. After our inauguration, the colonial constitution of Cameroon — that shameful document written by our oppressors — will be BURIED forever. In its place, a NEW CONSTITUTION will be crafted by Pan-African Cameroonians. A constitution for us, by us, reflecting our values, our traditions, and our future. We will ABOLISH Western democracy — a system imported to divide and control. In its place, we shall usher in AFRISCOCRACY:

African governance, by African values, for African destiny. No longer shall a foreign tongue dictate how we live, govern, pray, and dream. To the spirit of every Cameroonian, I say this:

WAKE UP! This is our time. We are the generation that will break the chains or die enslaved. There is no middle ground. To the imperialists, to the colonial puppets, to the corrupt elites — be warned: When Success Nkongho and the Cameroon Liberation Movement rise to power, we are not coming to negotiate. We are coming to REWRITE HISTORY.

Arise, Unite, liberate — or be swept away by the coming storm.

Viva Cameroon! Viva Pan-Africa! Viva the Revolution!

Success Nkongho
