

SEX IS SWEET BUT CAN DESTROY YOUR DESTINY.

Sex is sweet but there is poison in between the legs" Most downfalls of men are caused by MULTIPLE girlfriends. Sex is a spiritual encounter I stand to be corrected, not every girl has a good spirit, some are demonic agents and they carry destruction between their legs. Some also are on assignment for strange water spirits and they carry poison in between their legs. Some are killers and destiny destroyers, they are on a revenge mission for whatever reason. They are out to steal, kill and destroy destinies of men and even their female folks. Just be careful whatever gender you are. Worst is a man who can't control his sexual desire and appetite. A man who can control his sexual urge is a man who can live many years on earth. Having chains of girlfriends for sexual satisfaction does not make you a man. It only makes you a womanizer who is a cheat, sinner, irresponsible and still a boy. A real man has only one woman (wife) in his life. For the fact that you are good in bed does not make you a man. A real man is the man who does not run away from his responsibility but faces it squarely. You don't need to sag your trousers, bleach your body and walk lousily round the street before girls will love you. In fact it is only small boys that sag trousers and it is premature little girls that fall in love with men who sag trousers, wear earrings and colour the hairs on their head. Some even mark their bodies with tattoo of strange animals on their bodies and still feel on top of the world. This is very strange and curious.

Don't use and dump women. Remember the law of karma. Whatever you do, you will receive the reward. If you cannot make her your wife, don't make her a mother. If she can't be your wife don't sleep with her. Do not obey your erection at all times. Most times your erections if not controlled may lead you to the wrong direction and early grave. Control your erection. Don't let your erection control you. If you don't discipline your erection you will have few days on earth with much poverty on you. You may insult me but it doesn't matter to me now, because am done telling you this. It is not everything you see under skirt that you should hustle to take to bed; some skirts contain snakes and it will bite you and leave you uncomfortable and hopeless. Control your sexual urge. Self control and abstinence in most cases pays a lot. Do not date a lady because she has sexy curves, boobs and shapes. Those things are just packaging; and packaging can be very deceptive avoid such, don't fall for what's called the irony of Social Media. The only thing that can help you control yourself and your emotion is to surrender your life to Jesus. He is the only solution otherwise man in his depraved nature cannot tame his emotions and lust. It can only be done by the power in the blood of Jesus.
